He has also made arrangements to be at all times in receipt of any important improvements that may take place in the agricultural line. Another very important resture in this new establishment is, that the proprietor is a practical agricultural machinist, with an experience of tweive years. He has thereby acquired a thorough knowledge of this business in all its various branches. He therefore feels justified in saying that he can obtain and furnish all articles in his lice on as reasonable terms as any house in this country.

Machinery of all descriptions repaired at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

With the above experience and facilities for conducting this business, (which is all important), he respectfully solicits the patronage of the farming community and public generally. It shall always be his object to please.
